FOREWORD

In our 1950 FORUM we have used the Mount Vernon High School symbol, the Yellow Jacket, to introduce the different sections of the book. Our Yellow Jacket is caricatured and finds himself in some amusing situations. Several of the sketches carry out the idea of business, which is the theme of this year's FORUM. The Yellow Jackets were all drawn by Donna Mintier, and the FORUM staff and JACKET JOURNAL staff drawings were made by Brenda Olson. Most of the photographs were taken by Bill Ferguson.

The FORUM staff gives you this book with the hope that you will always remember and cherish your high school days.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Future Teachers of America—Cassell Chapter

This year our F.T.A. Group has had a fine increase in membership and accomplishments. A 50 dollar scholarship has been raised for some student to receive for the furtherance of his teacher training. The enrollment in the club has reached 48 which is a large number compared with other groups in our State. Assembly program participation, student teaching, civic enterprises, raising of the Scholarship Fund have constituted part of the activities. Attendance at the State A Council composed of Mr. Fridline, Mr. Root, Mr. Barnes, Mrs. Cassell, Miss Dowds, and Mrs. Ackerman have helped in the guidance of this group. The adviser is Miss Lewis. This year marks the third year for this group, and the membership has grown from 14 to 48. Each year a scholarship has been given. Both recipients are doing fine work in the institution of higher education that has been their choice and are enrolled in teacher training.

COACH DON SWEGAN AND DICK SHUFF

A boy whose name will long echo in the halls of old Mt. Vernon is Dick Shuff. He became a member of the football team as a freshman and lettered all four years. In basketball Dick won three varsity letters as he did in track.

In his four years on the gridiron Dick scored 41 touchdowns and was named to the all Ohio Football team in 1948. Dick was elected captain of the basketball team in his senior year, and as a junior he won honors on the All-Ohio Basketball team. In track Dick was a dash man and won many honors for the Yellow Jackets.

Dick was respected by all players who played with or against him whether on the football field, basketball court, or track field. He will always be remembered as a great leader and a good sportsman both on the athletic field and in everyday life.

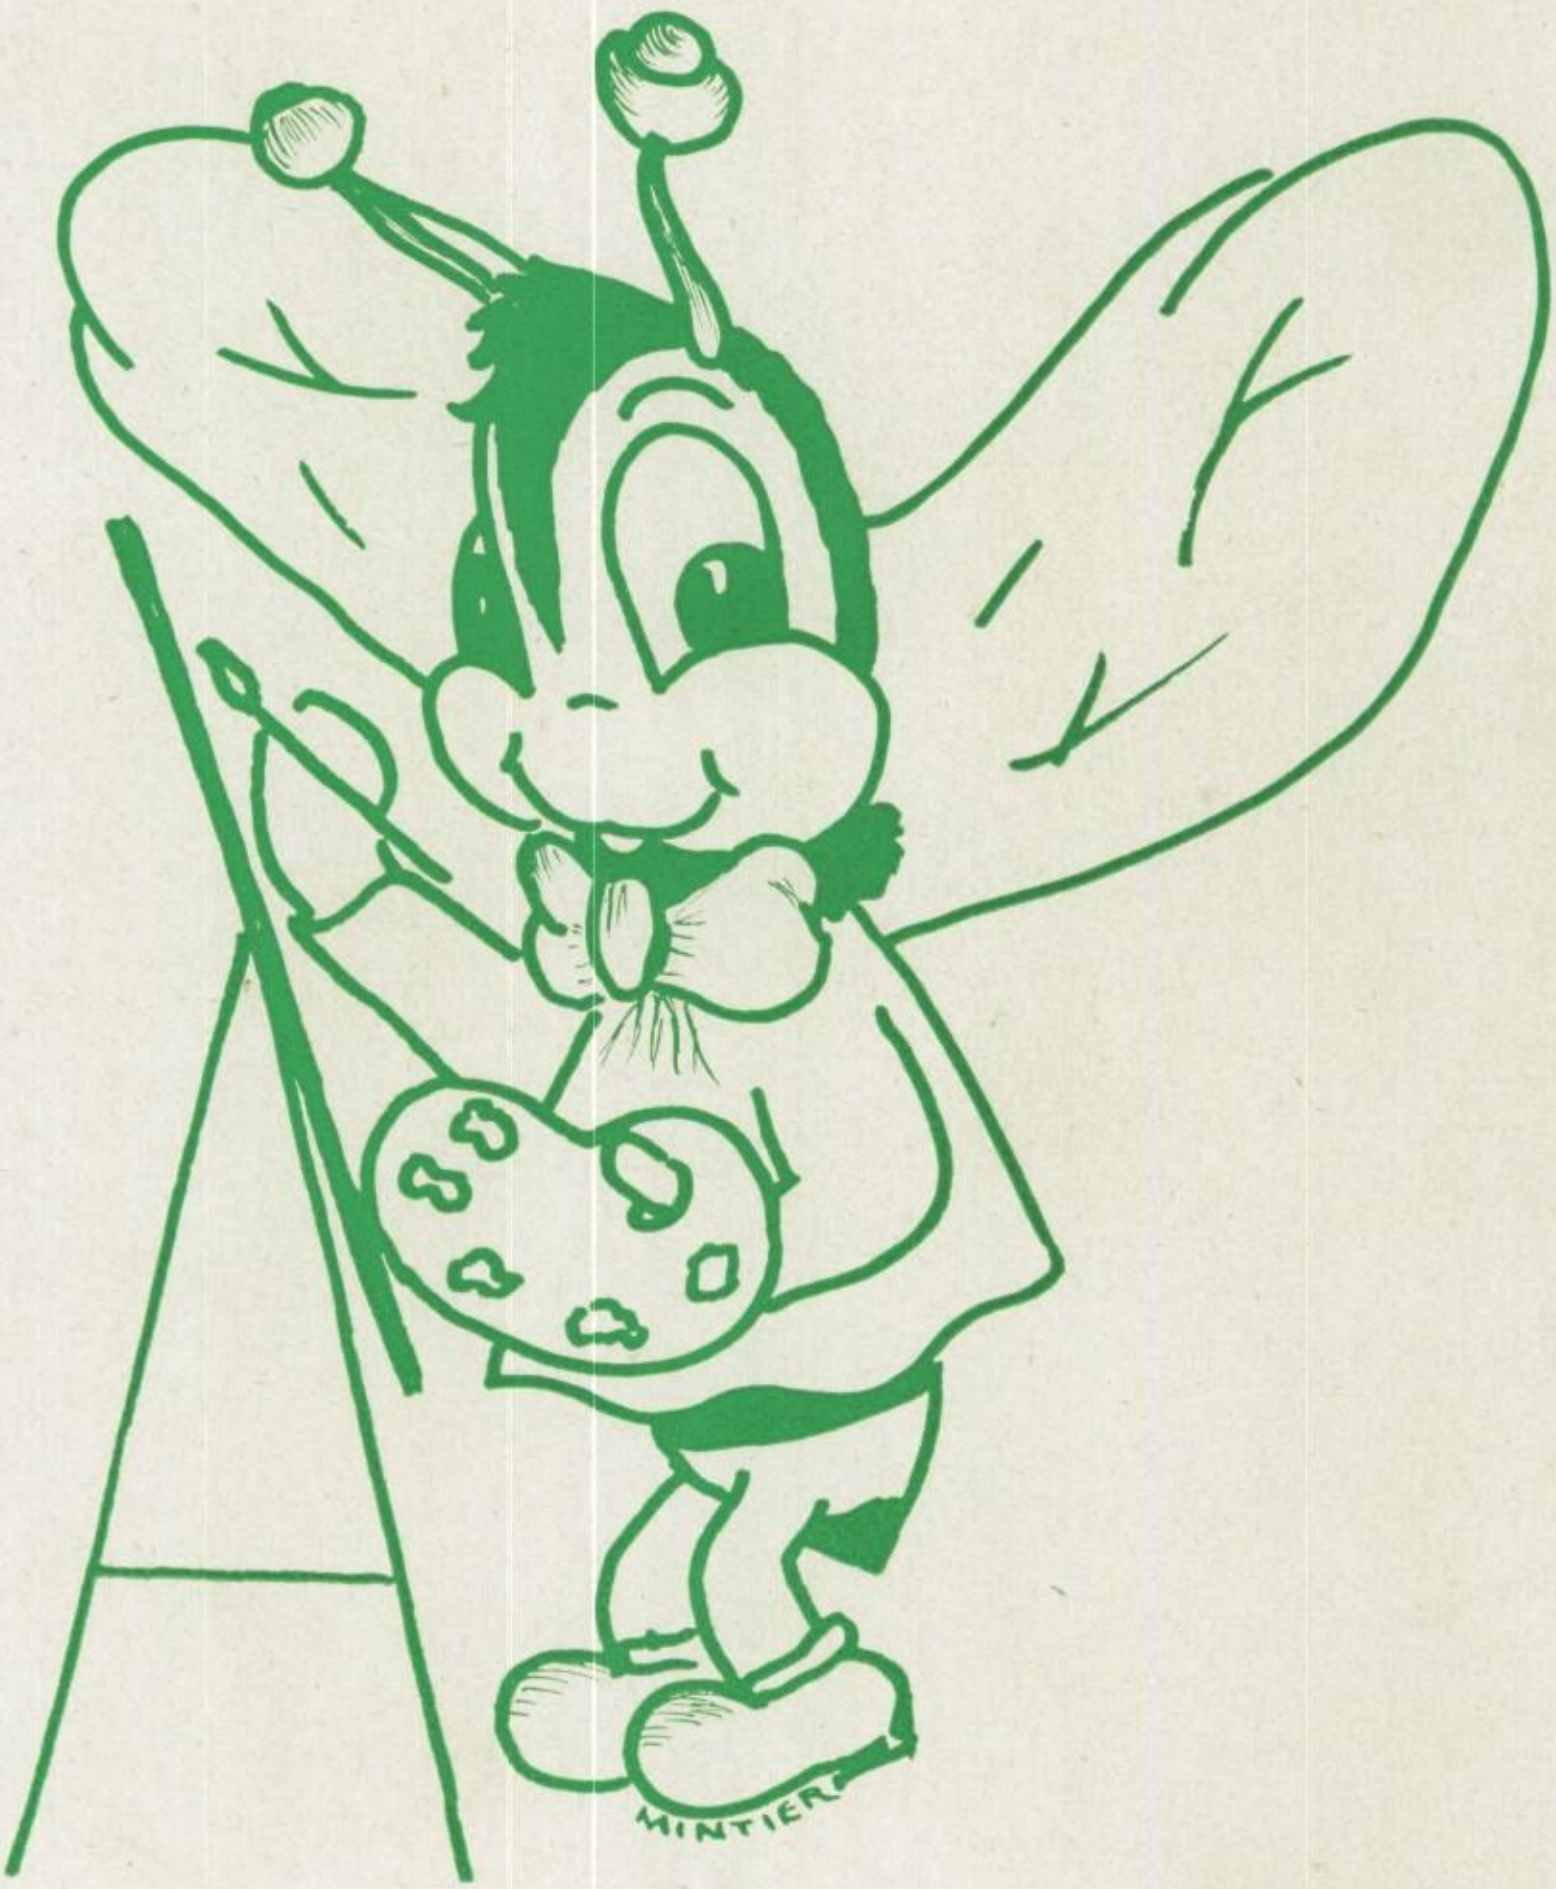
ART



RE EXIT

OILS CLUB

The Oils Club members for the current year have numbered 25. Every member has completed two acceptable oil paintings and several members have painted more than two oils. The students meet once a month for an evening and then continue their paintings in their regular art class periods. Earnest effort has been noted through the year and much enjoyment has resulted from experimentation in this medium. Several oil paintings from this year's group were submitted to the National Scholastic Exhibition in Pittsburgh. We hope to achieve some recognition. The officers for this year are president, Donna Mintier; vice-president, Robert Walton; treasurer, Brenda Olson; secretary, Margaret Hart; adviser, Miss Lewis. In addition to the regular meetings, two social meetings are enjoyed each year. This year the first social event was an initiation and hayride, the second a pot luck dinner and movies in the art room. Membership is dependent upon ability and achievement in Art.

PARADE OF THE MONTHS

The Art Department presented an Assembly in March called the PARADE OF THE MONTHS with 110 students participating. Each month of the year was presented in tableau and music. June, being the month of weddings, found the Mock Wedding Ceremony of Doris Banner and Don Smith. The officiating minister was Dave McKay. The month of December saw Santa Claus dash across the stage to the tune of Up on the Housetop. Jim Spicer played the part of Santa. The climax of the tableau was February, with Old Glory waving in a breeze, and Jean Willis portrayed Miss Liberty. The song accompanying this scene, was America The Beautiful.

CLASS PROPHECY

Scene—Courtroom 1965 Judge enters.

Bailiff (Hal)

Hear ye, hear ye, hear ye! This mock court of 1965 is now in session. (It says here.) David McKay; taking a leave of absence from Olson Sporting Goods Store, is presiding as judge. The attorney for the defendent is Curt Mayer, (Comes running in wearing track suit, towel around neck) who is just returning from the Olympic Games with Jeannette Dotson as his manager. Dr. Roger Rian (duck goes quacking across the stage) is attorney for the plantiff. The people vs. Norman Phillips. The defendent is charged with illegally opening the mail. The clerk will now cuss Mr. Phillips in.

Clerk (Bill)

Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?

Norm

So what!

Bill

So help you.

Judge (Dave)

Do you plead guilty or not guilty?

Defendent (Norm)

What's the difference?

Judge (Dave)

Twenty years!

Defendent (Norm)

Innocent.

Attorney (Rog)

Do you deny—

Defendent (Norm)

I'm not denying anything.

Attorney (Rog)

That's irrelovent to the question. Do you deny opening the mail of Louise Ralston?

Defendent (Norm)

No, but oh, what I found!

Rog

Yes, yes. (impatient)

Norm

That Don Fry is the Distributor for the Four Conrstalks Beverage Co. operated by John Ewart, President; 1st Vice Pres.-Hubert Snow, 2nd Vice Pres.-Willis Butler, 3rd Vice Pres.-Forrest Clutter, 4th Vice Pres.-Dave Black, 5th Vice Pres.-Oakly Reffitt.

Rog

Defense rests. (Bob B. Rolls in cot.)

Curt

Do you feel justified in opening any of these letters?

Norm

Yes. Because I found one of the jury, Mary K. Lee, unqualified.

Curt

Why?

Norm

Because she's trying to start a New Civil War.

Disqualified. Just how many letters have you opened?

Norm
Oh, you'll find out.

Curt
Defense rests.

Bill
Jean Ann Swain to the stand. Do you swear—

Jean
It's against my better judgment. I don't swear. (Judge bangs gavel)

Bill
Occupation?

Jean
Chief Chemist at Heinz 57 Varieties.

Bill
(With Black Book) Address?

Rog
What have you got to do with this case?

Jean
I saw Rodney Vernon poisoning one of our 57 Varieties.

Dave McKay
Which one?

Jean
Tomato soup.

Mary Noffsinger
Oh, my lunch! (dashes off stage)

Rog
Defense rests.

Judge
Who was that?

Curt
Mary Noffsinger, gym teacher at the local high school.

Judge
Disqualified.

Bailiff
Tom Metcalf. Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?

Tom
I do.

Bill
Occupation?

Tom
I just quit the presidency of Kaiser-Frazer.

Curt
Why?

The funds ran out.

Curt

Now what are you going to do?

Tom

Join Stanley Fawcett's company. He's just invented the Washington Continental, the successor of the Lincoln Continental.

Judge

That brings another juror into the case. Disqualified!

Stanley

(Popping up.) (Playing chess with Reed Ewart) No, I can't leave. Gotta finish this game of chess.

Judge

Shall we proceed with the case?

Curt

Has anyone ever tampered with your mail?

Tom

Yes. When I received a letter from Doris Banner, my designer for auto treads. By the way, have you seen our latest model, Pat Rahming? Ooh La La.

Curt

Have you positive proof that this letter was opened by Norman?

Norm (breaking in) _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _

Even if I did open that letter I found out that the scientists Jack Sweet, Rosemarie Allen, Lois Benton, and Louis Owen's formula for checkered tires didn't work so they have started on an H. Bomb. This Helium bomb also turned out for the worse finally blowing them to Helium.

Tom

I don't have the exact proof that he opened that letter.

Curt

I rest the case.

Rog

No questions. I wish to call the defendant back to the stand.

Bill

Norman Phillips to the stand.

Rog

If you did not open the letter how did you know about the bomb?

Norm

That is not all I know either. I found out that Dean "Bookie" Reader and Pat George who are partners in Gay Gaieties are no longer gay. Janice Cotton "the bubble queen" with her chorus—Marlene Griffin, Kay McNamara, Peggy Bergen, Margretta Gaumer, Phylis Pryor, Julia Mossholder, Alice Mossholder, Marilyn Hall, Dorothy Hale, and Jim Goudy with his trained mice escaped. A riot was caused when "Big Mouse Hunter," Dick Gillooley tried to pressistatioujus it. Chief of Police Carol Welker and his body guards, Terry Wells, Ed Deem, Burt Connel, bravely entered the establishment with his riot squad to quell the disturbance.

Rog

You say you found these letters already opened?

Norm

Yes. They were in a waste paper basket.

Rog

They? You mean there were more?

Well, I found an old copy of "The Kenyon Collegian" edited by Bobbie Jeanne Fry, and the gossip column is headed by Carolyn Brandt. Stories in the paper stated that Dave Imel has replaced Mr. Bailey as Dean of Boys. I also read that Davida Kahrl finally got her appointment as director of the Control Board of Soft (?) Drinks. (Card comes out with Soft?)

Judge

If you have no more to say and since this has nothing to do with the case, call the next witness.

Curt

I would like to call Brenda Olson to the stand.

Brenda

I do.

Curt

What is your occupation?

Brenda

President of the W. C. T. U.

Curt

Where were you on the night of Friday, February 32, 1965?

Brenda

I was in Draper's Department Store.

Curt

What were you buying?

Brenda

Hose, to water my garden. (Say sarcastically).

Curt

Can you prove you were there?

Brenda

Yes. Jane Long waited on me.

Curt

Did you see anyone else in there?

Brenda

Yes. I saw Joyce Mondron. She had just arrived back in town from Keith Schouten's Queen for a Day television program. Delbert Koch—Master of Ceremonie. Nadine McKenzie and Martha Fawcett as sound effects. They are sponsored by Herbert Rock's Mineral Compounds.

Judge

Back to the case.

Curt

Do you have any evidence that Norman has tampered with the mail?

Brenda

No, I don't believe he has. But he wants to become a member of the Courtship Council. Pat Romine, Marie Wagner, and Annabelle Davis are already members. Donna Mintier is a representative of the Council in Lower Saga-boga-kongo and Georgiann Morris is the representative to Upper Saga-boga-kongo.

Bobbie Jeanne Fry take the stand. Do you swear to tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth so help you?

Bobbie

Roger
When did you last see the defendant?

Bobbie
I saw him when my club, The Federation of Redheads, with Bill Emlick, Barb Kline, and Betty Bond, went to Gene Wittenmeyer's Opera House. Dick Gantz, Alice Magill, and Jo Anne Peugh were starring, supported by Leva Levering, Joyce Shira, Jeannine Dew, Clara Mae Gosset, and Bernida Henthorne, Lawrence Pembrook directed the All Girl Orchestra made up of Fern Rinehart, Juanita Thompson, Maxine Cochran, Stamatia Madias, Sue Barncard, and Janet Durbin.

Curt
Did you see anyone with Norman who might give us any more evidence?

Bobbie
I saw Norman with Charles Smith, who owns the Saint Louis Blue Jays. They won the penant this year with Dick Shuff as the featured star. He was firmly supported by "Babe Ruth" Bair, "Boudrou" Dougherty, "Jackie Robinson" Carter, "Ty Cobb" Evans, "Satchal" Simmons, "Bearden" Appleton, Larry "Lemon" Steagall, and "Bad Boy" Spicer. The biased umpire was Tauger.

Judge
Next Witness.

Clerk
Sandra Pitkin to the stand.

Roger
What is your occupation?

Sandy
After an unsuccessful attempt at digging gold in 'Playboy Mountain" I went back to teaching history at Podunk Center.

Rog
Is it not true you were at the teachers' convention at Columbus?

Sandy
Yes, I saw Joan Doup, teacher of kindergarten, Norma Newton, successor to Miss Koons, Helen Hollifield teaching home economics, and Dorothy Belt as French teacher. Mary Madias was the speaker of the afternoon. She talked of her trip in Europe when she met the famous celebrities of the continent. Included in these were William Oscar Ferguson, famous connoisseur of Modern French Art, Phyllis Jacobs as talent scout in Europe who discovered Sir Robert Bennett starring in "Over The Window Was Slung An Old Fashioned Mussell Loading Musket" or "Bennett Rides Again." He is supported by the Rodeo stars—Esta Lee Parker, Patty Sutton, Bob Parker, Creta Carter, and under Hal Walker's direction with Pauline Spearman's ingenious inspirations.

Judge
If you have nothing further to say about the case, call the next witness.

Bill
Reed Ewart take the stand.

THE ROMANCE OF COAL

The legendary British farmer little realized what a world-shaking event had occured when his pig rooted up what seemed to be a black stick of wood. In his fireplace it burned fiercely with much different results. Coal had been discovered! Folks think of coal as heat. Coal is the source of by-products like drugs, chemicals, gas dyes. Without coal the great iron and steel industry would be unborn.

Rog

I hear that you know something about the case.

Reed

No, not particularly, but I wanted to tell the court that these missionaries, Lois Owen, Doris McKee, Barbara Hendrickson, Donna Shrimplin, Marie Wagner and Zelma Lee, under the expert guidance of Bev Tier, had complained that their exceptionally personal letters had been opened.

Judge

I hear that you know Jim Gray and Bob Brillhart. What are they doing now-a-days?

Reed

After 15 years, Jim is still trying to collect dues from the 1950 Seniors, and Bob is still trying to win just one game of chess with Mr. Walton. Think he will do it?

Judge

(Cough, clear throat) Back to the case. Mr. Mayer do you have any more evidence?

Curt

Yes, I would like to call Norman Phillips back to the stand. Have you anything to add to the case?

(Bob Evans in to pay Stanley off)

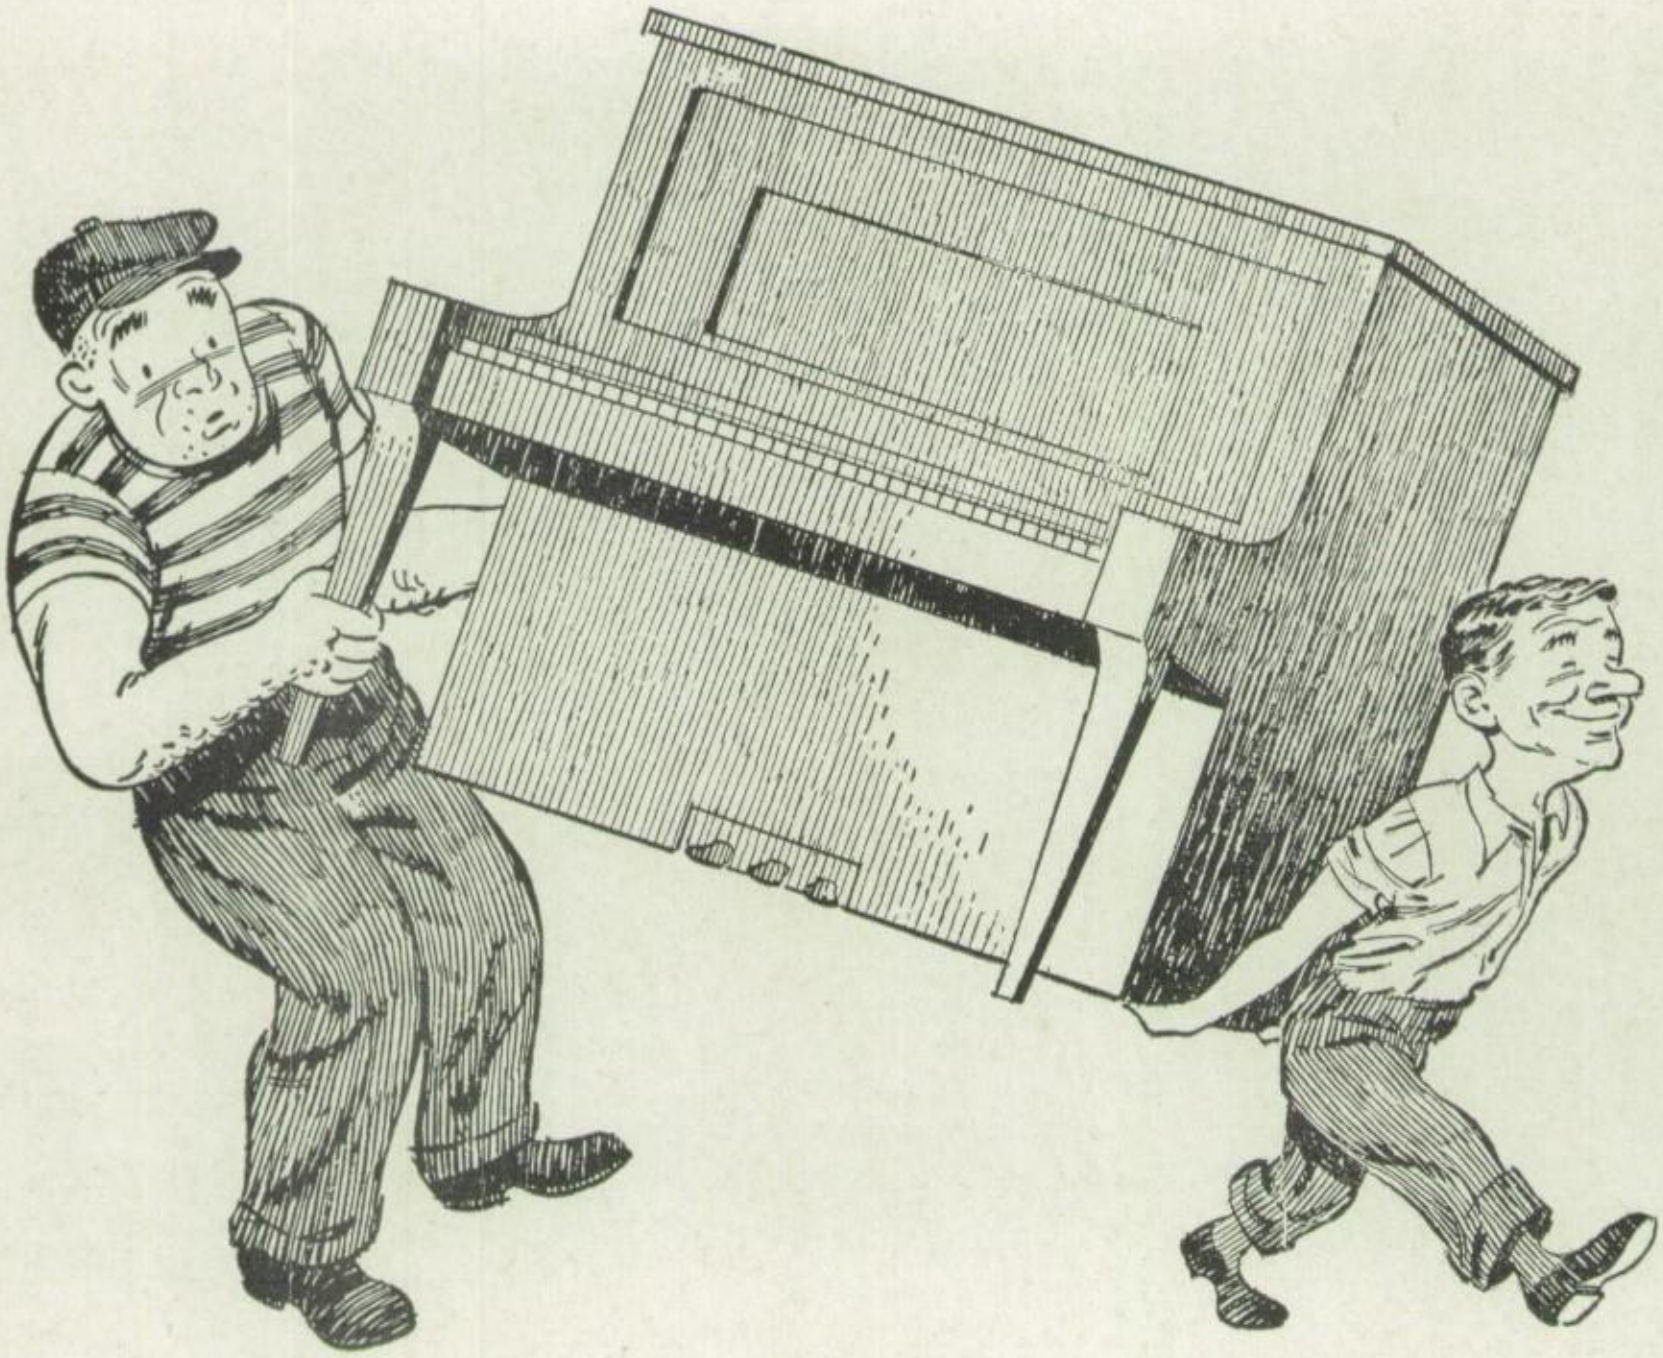
Norm

In some of the letters I discovered Robby Curry, as a model under the direction of Bob Evans. I found also a letter from Dick Sorenson, President of Baby Sitters' Union, to Keith Ewers, his secretary. They are engaged in a war with Jim Sellers as president of the Corporation for Babes Entertainment. He is assisted by Betty Hottinger, Martha Story, Jean Houck and Carolyn Warman. He is trying to form a monoply by taking away Dick and Kieth's employees, Lois Simpson, Clarabelle Springer, Phyllis Vernon, and Virginia Bebout.

Judge

Norman Phillips by the law of this land you have been charged with illegally opening people's mail. Therefore in view of the evidence presented which prove beyond the shadow of a doubt that you are guilty it is the opinion of this court that you shall be punished accordingly, I hear by sentence you to 4 more years of High School.

It's your RIGHT!



If you want to be a piano mover, that's your right. If you'd rather play it instead, that's your right too. Here in America you are free to choose the kind of job you want and the city you want to work in. And if you can do a better job than the next fellow — you're free to go on up the ladder. It's one of your rights that is guaranteed under the American system.

That's not true everywhere in the world. In some countries, everyone is told what job to do, told where to work, told how much he can make — by the government.

Even in America, some people are trying to whittle down this right — trying to make your decisions for you.

Don't let them do it. You can stop them by standing up for your rights — whenever and wherever someone tries to take them from you.

At Timken, a man can go as far up the ladder as his ability and ambition will take him. And we give him a boost with special training programs.
We want to preserve and advance the rights of the free American working man.

Care and Judgment

Good Printing is not necessarily expensive — it is a matter of care and judgment in its preparation and production. Care and judgment . . . two mighty meaningful words to consider when you order printing. Care and judgment signify the skill, the training, the experience, the talent of the printer who does your work. Paper, ink, type, and other materials that the printers use are standard, but the finished product depends on Care and Judgment.

THE TEACHER SMILES

Ever since its founding in 1833 The Cooper-Bessemer Corporation has been a manufacturer of power equipment. Among the earlier developments were the first steam locomotive west of the Alleghenies in 1853, the first successful farm tractor in 1875, the first Corlis steam engine in the Middle West in 1868, and a two cycle gas engine power cylinder for oil field service in 1899.

From 1908 till the present time the main products have been gas engine-driven compressor units and diesel engines. The most recent developments have been the highly efficient Turboflow gas engine and gas-diesel engines, high-pressure liquid pumps and motor-driven compressors.

The company's plants are complete with modern facilities including assembly floors, machine shops, tool shops, foundries, pattern shops, core shops, power plants and metallurgical laboratories, as well as metal-processing and heat-treating equipment.

Cooper-Bessemer is a good place to work. For example $2,186,657 has been paid into the Employees Profit sharing Fund since the plan went into effect five years ago. Under this plan, 10 percent of the Corporation's profits before taxes are shared by the employees.

CLASS POEM

1950

Finale, conclusion, climax; omega, the finish, the end;
Mingled feelings and thoughts; gladness and sadness that blend;
Recollections, memories, remembrance; reminiscense back to the past;
What we've done, what we'll miss, how we feel at the last;
The future, new horizons, new decisions; new hopes, new plans, expectation—
Many things enter the seniors' minds as we face our graduation.

REMEMBRANCE
First time up those steps, first of many days,
We were breathless, excited, befuddled in ways,
With a feeling of smallness, of fastness to learn,
A desire for respect, a reputation to earn.
A look at long years, a search for the way,
And graduation six years away.
Remember?

We added some poise, assurance, and pride,
A little more thought, more dreams to confide,
More activities, renown, versatility now,
Observance of things with a wish to learn how,
More life in the present, accent on today,
With graduation four years away.
Remember?

The class pride developed, the leaders, the ring,
Expectation of laurels tomorrow might bring.
A conscious awakening of heart and mind,
A weighing of assets of opposite kind,
A vision of grandeur, foundation to lay,
And graduation just one year away.
Remember?

In the course of a year suddenly find
Something of wisdom in your teen-aged mind,
A discovery of ignorance you thought left behind,
A new knowledge of living, its buoyance and strife,
Decisions to make for the rest of your life,
An aching for knowledge deep down inside,
Realization of so much, yet a gap so wide.
What of the future? Have we yet found the way?
Beginning or ending? Are we sure? Can we say?
To find real happiness—we hope that we may,
For graduation is so close to today.

Finale, conclusion, climax; omega, the finish, the end;
Mingled feelings and thoughts; gladness and sadness that blend;
Recollections, memories, remembrance, reminiscense back to the past,
What we've done, what we'll miss, how we feel at the last;
The future, new horizons, new decisions; new hopes, new plans, expectation—
Yes, many things enter the seniors' minds as we face our graduation.

Bobbie Jeanne Fry

The following poem was written by Bobbie Jeanne Fry and read by Hall Walker in senior assembly. It is dedicated to "the hard-working senior boys."

RESUME

"What have I done in my high school days?"
"What's been accomplished and in what ways?"
I don't mean to startle or amaze,
But here's just what I'm proud of.

That time I skipped and Birdie never knew,
The excuses I had—all just like new,
When someone pulled the fire alarm—they never found out who Guess who? Uh-huh.

That time I stole my best friend's girl,
That time I mimicked Milton Berle,
That time I went on a social whirl,
Those were the times I'm proud of!

That time I bet Walton and really did win,
And, gee, all those scrapes I somehow goe it,
You can see what a smart, clever guy I have been
It wasn't easy to get through!

When I got by with an oration on bop,
When my friends voted me "The Class's Prize Flop"
When I played with one finger a terrific "Rag-mop",
Yep, great times!

Noon-hour races around the block in my old truck,
The pedestrians all survived, I guess—Gee, some people's luck!
Telephone poles, lamp posts, and trees are all I ever struck,
That's because I drive carefully.

You say "studies"? Oh, I never let them bother me much,
"Service"? Oh, you mean contributions and such.
Well, I was a guy duty never could touch.
What fun is that?

"Don't I want the school to remember my name?"
"Didn't I get some kind of honor or fame?"
Well, not exactly, but still just the same.
I'm sure they won't forget me.

I carved my name in 31 and 29,
The chipped plaster in the projection room is a handiwork of mine,
And all my textbooks I've been sure to sign,
So you see, there's my record.

Yes sir, the old school has harbored me well,
I've always got a thrill from its 3:20 bell,
All these memories have sure been lots of fun to tell,
Those are my accomplishments.

An! now that they're past,
I really believe
Indeed, at long last,
I'm ready to leave!
